

Foreshore Taskforce Map 5 - Hervey St-Queens Rd Scarness

ForeshoreTaskforce-Map5

Sub-precinct	Key objective	Foreshore Management Unit and objective as per Foreshore Management Plan	Coastal Protection	Vegetation/Embellishments	Recommendation
Sub-precinct 11 	Establish the primary role of the area as developed parkland to align with the proposed streetscape improvement strategy for Scarness. Improve and maintain safety and visual surveillance.	Management Unit: Natural dune and foreshore. Objective: - To protect and regenerate natural vegetation communities. - Active and on-going weed and fire management. Ecological restoration if necessary.	Established sea wall. Approved Sandpush area - low priority for active intervention.	Unfenced area which includes a variety of native and exotic species.	General tidy up and weed control. Remove dead and fallen branches. Brushcut and trim groundcovers including Vitex. Thin Cottonwoods and crown lift large specimens. Identify and retain succession trees. Crown lift trees. Formalise garden edging and turfing commensurate with high profile landscape. Capital improvements - Table & Seats
Sub-precinct 12 	To enhance Scarness Park as a key focus area for passive recreation and events by improving visual amenity and community safety and enhanced facilities.	Management Unit: Developed parkland Objective: - Dominant native canopy and shrub vegetation. - Introduced landscape species may be appropriate. - Grassed areas are appropriate. - Revegetation of disturbed areas. - Vegetation planting and management designed to facilitate views through or over vegetation where there will be demonstrable public benefits.	Established sea wall. Approved Sandpush area - medium to high priority for active intervention.	High profile passive recreation and events area.	General tidy up and weed control. Thin Cottonwoods and crown lift large specimens. Crown lift trees. Stabilise areas as required through mulching or the planting of ground covers or turf. Undertake capital works program as identified in 2012/13 budget.
Sub-precinct 12a 