

Request for Centenary Tree

Purpose of Form: This form will be used to process your request for a Centenary Tree to mark a 100th birthday celebration.

There are no fees for the Centenary Tree or ceremony to plant the Centenary tree however, each Centenary applicant is only eligible for one tree.

Recognition is in the form of tree with a plinth and plaque identifying the birthday and recipient to be planted in a Council park location:

- Hervey Bay Botanic Gardens, Urangan,
- Elizabeth Park Rose Gardens, Maryborough or
- Tiaro Memorial Park, Tiaro.

The location of the plantings for Centenary Tree may change from time to time dependent on available space and environmental conditions within each park.

Please provide one of the supporting documents at the time of application, showing evidence of address and the date of the birth (non-certified photocopies are acceptable).
